MTHE MOON MAIDENM
(A Comic Operetta In Two Acts)

"THE MOON MAIDEN"
(A Comic Operetta In Two Acts)

An airship, with its Captain, Passengers, and Crew, is driven out of its course by a storm to the Moon and makes a landing. The visitors are cordially welcomed by the Moon Man and Moon Girls, the Moon Witch resenting what she deems an intrusion. The guests are conducted to the lovely Moon Garden and are presented to the Moon Maiden, whom the Moon dwellers count as their Princess.

The group of earthfolk includes engaged couples, the Captain and Evelina, and Jack and Peggy. Miss Aurelia, an elderly school teacher, finds it difficult to address the Captain as anything but Willy, since he was once in her kindergarten. The Moon Maiden receives the guests, while mourning the loss of her Silver Lamp of Romance, which the Witch has stolen.

Possessing the magic Lamp, the Witch contrives to mix up affairs. The love of the Captain is transferred to the Stewardess, that of Jack to Miss Aurelia, Evelina falls in love with Sam the Sailor, Peggy with the Moon Man, the Poet with the Moon Maiden, and the Radioman with the Witch. Much confusion results but all is straightened out by the discovery of the lost Lamp. The Moon Maiden declines an invitation to return to the Earth with the visitors and says that she will remain on the Moon, holding up her Silver Lamp of Romance. With Farewells, the travelers leave.

The cast of characters is as follows: Arlene Pegar, The Moon Maiden; Eldred Chicoine, The Poet; Stanley LaFluer, The Moon Man; Darlene Trudeau, The Moon Witch; Pauline Crevier, Evelina; Roland Trudeau, The Captain; Edna Mae Solomon, Miss Aurelia; Bette Bernard, Peggy Porter; Blaine Beavers, Jack Garvis; Jack LaFleur, Sam the Sailor; John Bernard, The Radioman; Eunice Dahm, The Stewardess.

Moon Girls: Maurine Pegar, Theresa Bernard, Stella Radizk, Jean Montagne, Mary Dennison, Sara Jane Stowe, Sonia Blanchard, Evelyn Beauchene, Margaret Crevier.

Sailors: Oliver Bernard, William Beavers, Raymond LaFleur, Ben Bernard, Alfred Allard, Lauren Fornia, Robert Trudeau.

Passengers: Patty Ryan, Ruby Robinson, Bonnie Emmick, Maxine Robinson, Marvetta Montagne.
The success of the operetta was due to the superior direction of Mrs. Dennison, and Miss
Tschetter, the cooperation of the operetta cast, and the orchestration directed by Mr. Disch

The band, under the direction of Mr. Disch, has made great progress during the past year. There were 14 new members at the beginning of the year, and there is now another class of beginners well on the way.

The band made several public appearances and accompanied the Operetta. Everyone appreciates the time and effort put in by our band and director to make this activity a success this year.

The Pep Squad is an organization of girls chosen for their ability in athletics and good sportsmanship.

The purpose of the club is to entertain the crowd between games and to give the girls an opportunity to show their special abilities in tumbling, working on the trapeze, and in marching formations.

One of the most outstanding pieces of work was the opening and closing of the rosebud. The pyramids also received a great deal of recognition. Other performances included the treadway, skinning the snake, and the revolving wheel.

A great deal of credit is due to Miss Tschetter for her originality and patience in directing this group.

BOYS! HOMEMAKING

GIRLS' SHOP

The first six weeks of the second semester the Girls' Homemaking Class and Boys' Manual Training Class exchanged courses. In the shop, Ruby Robinson, DoLores Gareau, and Marie Couture made end tables; Arlene Pegar, twin dresser lamps; Marvetta Montagne and Mary Ryan, foot stools and Bette Bernard, an ash tray. Mary Ryan and Bette Bernard were not present at the time the picture was taken.

The boys planned, prepared, and served an entire dinner for their parents and teachers. Their greatest success was their home-made ice cream and cake.

VALENTINE MIXER

A Valentine Mixer was held in the high school auditorium on Feb.14, with a large crowd attending.

Everyone participated in games and dances. Miss Luther helped those who were just learning to dance by showing them new steps.

Everyone cooperated which enabled us to have an enjoyable time.

The ice cream and pies made by the boys and girls homemaking classes were a grand success.

The Junior class was host to the Senior class, Faculty, and Board members for the event of a dinner dance which tool place May 13, 19 43. The theme of the 7:00 dinner was the Maypole which proved to give a definite, cheerful, spring atmosphere. The table centerpieces were miniature Maypole with pastel streamers leading to each plate. The nut cups were small rosebuds in light shades of pink, blue, yellow, and lavendar. The favors were tiny candle-holders containing candles matching the delicate hue of each nut cup.

The gymnasium was so decorated that tables were quickly removed and curtains on the stage opened disclosing the tastily decorated bandshell. At nine o'clock, the Grand March was led by the most Representative Juniors, Margaret Crevier and Stanley LaFleur who escorted the King-Carl Bourassa and the Queen-Bette Bernard to their thrones where the King and Queen were crowned.

Punch was served all evening, sveryone enjoyed themselves until the last strains of the "Star Spangled Banner" were played.
